GOVERNOR MIFFLIN HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS PERFORM WITH KENNY ROGERS

SHILLINGTON, PA, DECEMBER 2010 - On December 20, 2010 at 8:00 p.m., the Governor Mifflin High School select singing group, the Governors and First Ladies, will perform with legendary musician Kenny Rogers at the Sovereign Performing Arts Center on North 5th Street in Reading. All 30 members of the Governors and First Ladies will meet Kenny Rogers and sing with him during a seven-minute Christmas medley arranged by Samuel Louis Coco.

The Governors and First Ladies were invited to share the stage with Mr. Rogers by Sarah Hedeem, the talent coordinator from the Kenny Rogers Productions. For this concert performance, four young students from Governor Mifflin elementary schools have been invited to join the Governors and First Ladies in representing Governor Mifflin School District's musical talent.

The Governors and First Ladies are directed by music teacher Mrs. Carolann Schneiderhan. Members rehearse three times a week and must audition to be a part of this show choir. The group performs several times a year at various venues in the county, including football games, senior centers, holiday functions and spring concerts at school.
