SHANNON TANNER TO PERFORM FREE CONCERT AT GOVERNOR MIFFLIN

SHILLINGTON, PA, SEPTEMBER 2011 - On Thursday, September 22, 2011, singer and song writer Shannon Tanner will perform a free concert, co-hosted by the Governor Mifflin School District Parent-Teacher Organizations and Kenhorst Dairy Queen. The concert will take place in the Governor Mifflin Intermediate School amphitheater from 6:30-8 p.m. In case of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the GMIS gymnasium.

Tanner, a family entertainer best known for his act at Shelter Cove in Hilton Head, South Carolina. Shannon Tanner has been entertaining children and families for more than two decades! He has written a variety of children's and family songs. His family show includes many well-known sing-a-longs, which are geared for all ages! His performances deliver a lighthearted and often humorous array of songs and stories incorporating children and adult involvement. He always hopes crowds leave with a sense of spiritual uplifting.

There is no charge for this concert. Families are asked to bring a blanket and/or chairs.

The media is welcome to report on the Shannon Tanner concert taking place at Governor Mifflin School District. To schedule a visit or interview, please contact Keri Morton at 610-775-1312 or kmorton@gmsd.k12.pa.us.
