GOVERNOR MIFFLIN ART STUDENTS ERECT PINWHEELS FOR PEACE

SHILLINGTON, PA, SEPTEMBER 2011 - On Monday, September 26, art students at Governor Mifflin High School will celebrate the International Day of Peace by participating in the Pinwheels for Peace project. Throughout the school day, students will "plant" a hand-made pinwheel in front of the building. Each student created his/her pinwheel using words and drawings that represent the student's representation of peace.

Art teachers Mrs. Christine Allen, Mrs. Rhonda Tomel and Mrs. Kelly Spengler are leading the project with each of their classes. For more information on the Pinwheels for Peace project, visit: www.pinwheelsforpeace.com
