TRANSCRIPT RELEASE FORM

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Legislation requires a written release on the part of a Governor Mifflin student or parent before school records may be released to any agency. If a student is under 18 years of age, the student's parents must sign the release. If the student has reached 18 years of age, or is married at any age, the student may approve the request. In either case, it will be the student's responsibility to initiate this procedure.

Upon receipt of this approval form, we will promptly forward the information requested. Bear in mind we will not release any school records without proper written consent.

There is a $1.00 processing fee for each transcript requested.
