8th Annual Dodgeball for Life shaping up as biggest yet

Who: Governor Mifflin staff and students

What: Before the dodge balls start flying on Friday evening, Governor Mifflin Middle School is more than half way to its goal of raising $10,000 for the American Cancer Society. The 8th Annual Dodgeball for Life tournament has already raised $6,400 and registered a record number of teams for the two-day event. This year's tournament is dedicated to two Governor Mifflin staffers who have battled cancer, Danielle Leininger and Amy Hatlee. A total of 51 teams are registered. Middle School and High School student teams will play Friday evening with adult teams and Intermediate School students scheduled to play during the day on Saturday. The tournament and raffle is organized by Governor Mifflin staff members Joanne Marshall and Tracey Miller.

Where: Governor Mifflin Middle School
130 E. Lancaster Avenue, Shillington

When: Friday, February 26; 5:00-10:00 p.m.
Saturday 9:00 a.m. – (end of tournament)
