Spring concert rehearsal to include clinic with the composer

Who: Governor Mifflin 7th grade chorus students

What: As some of Governor Mifflin's choral students prepare for their upcoming spring concert, they will have a unique opportunity to rehearse with the composer behind one of their musical selections. On May 10, the students will perform "Misty Morning" composed by Mr. Carl J. Nygard, Jr. On Friday, April 22, Mr. Nygard, Jr. will visit Governor Mifflin Middle School to rehearse "Misty Morning" with students and answer questions about the music and choral composition. The Governor Mifflin Music Association is sponsoring the visit.

Mr. Nygard, Jr. has had more than 100 pieces of his music published and broadcast on five continents. His work has been performed by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, and countless choirs across the United States. He holds a bachelor's degree in Music Education and a master's degree in composition from West Chester University.

Where: Governor Mifflin Middle School
130 E. Lancaster Avenue, Shillington

When: Friday, April 22; 1:45-2:55 p.m.
