

Brecknock Elementary School Title I/RtII
Parent Involvement Policy

The Governor Mifflin School District invites parents to be partners and decision-makers in their children's educational programs. This parent involvement policy was developed with the help of the teachers and parents of Title I / RtII students.

Brecknock Elementary School, which is served under Title I, shall:

- Hold an annual parent meeting. Parents will be informed of their school's educational programs and parent involvement opportunities.
- Offer meetings for parents to provide materials and training to work with their children at home.
- Share information about assessments used to measure student progress and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
- Provide opportunities for parent-teacher conferences and give reports to parents on their children's progress.
- Ask for parent input regarding the Title I / RtII Parent Involvement Policy and Home/School Involvement Compact.
- Invite parents to volunteer and participate in their children's classes, and observe classroom activities.
- Inform parents of opportunities for volunteering to help at school.
- Encourage parents to use the following link:
