

Governor Mifflin Intermediate School Title I/RtII
Parent Involvement Policy

Governor Mifflin Intermediate School invites parents to be partners and decision-makers in their children's educational programs. This parent involvement policy was developed with the help of the teachers and parents of Title I/RtII students.

Governor Mifflin Intermediate School, which is served under Title I, shall:

- hold an annual parent meeting. Parents will be informed of their school's educational programs and parent involvement opportunities.
- offer meetings for parents to provide materials and training to work with their children at home.
- share information about assessments used to measure student progress and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
- provide opportunities for parent-teacher conferences and give reports to parents on their children's progress.
- ask for parent input regarding the Title I/RtII Parent Involvement Policy and Home/School Involvement Compact.
- invite parents to volunteer and participate in their children's classes, and observe classroom activities.
- encourage parents to use the following link:
